

pdp

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO. 4127 OF 2015

Sridhar Ramachandriah Sale

.. Petitioner

Vs.

The Commissioner of Police and ors.

.. Respondents

Mr. S. A. Vaidya for petitioner.

Mrs. U. V. Kejariwal, APP for State.

CORAM: NARESH H. PATIL &
A. M. BADAR, JJ.

APRIL 05, 2016.

P.C.

1. Leaned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is taking stringent steps to unearth unaccounted money, cases of money laundering, he had to issue notices and look into many other dealings. He has been receiving threats and messages. The petitioner has brought this to the notice of the police by filing a complaint.

2. Learned APP, on instructions, submits that the petitioner's complaint was looked into and N.C. was registered. Learned APP further submits that as of now police authorities are not convinced to grant police protection to the petitioner.

3. As the N.C. is registered by the police, the petitioner may resort to appropriate remedy as prescribed in law. All issues on merits are kept open. Petition is disposed of accordingly.

(A. M. BADAR, J.)

(NARESH H. PATIL,J.)