P. C. :

1. This writ petition is filed through jail. We have perused the same. The Petitioner is an under-trial prisoner. He is praying to conduct the test identification parade of himself and co-accused. The Petitioner is always at liberty to make this prayer before the Special Court before whom the case is pending. We are, therefore, not inclined to grant this prayer. Writ petition is, therefore, dismissed.

2. Registry to communicate this order to the Petitioner through post.
