

and Rs. 5 lakhs by post dated cheques of Rs. 1 lakh each. He has stated that he has no grievance against the Applicants. We have interviewed both the Applicants and the Complainant, who are present in the Court. We have asked whether he has any objection for quashing of the complaint. He has stated that he has no objection if the complaint is quashed. In our view, the ratio of the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of - Narinder Singh & Ors., Appellants Vs. State of Punjab & Anr., Respondents [(2014) 6 SCC 466] will squarely apply to the facts of the present case, since the dispute is of personal nature, and there is no impediment in quashing the complaint. We, therefore, allow the criminal application in terms of prayer clause (a), and it is accordingly disposed of.
