P.C.:

The Civil Application is taken out for order of injunction restraining the Respondents from creating any third party rights or parting with possession. The learned counsel for the Respondents submitted that there was no such injunction during the pendency of the proceedings and that the Suit and Appeal of the Applicants have been dismissed. If any such third party rights are created during the hearing of the Appeal, this Court at the time of hearing of Appeal can always pass appropriate orders in that regard. Civil Application is accordingly disposed of.
