P.C. :

When this matter was called out, the parties have tendered the consent terms dated 8 August, 2016. These consent terms provide that the Respondent Company agrees and undertakes to make payment of Rs.25 Lacs to the Petitioner in the installments, as set out in paragraph 2 thereof. Paragraph 5 of the consent terms further provide that if there is any default, this Company Petition shall stand admitted and advertised, and the Official Liquidator shall stand appointed as a Provisional Liquidator of the Respondent Company. These consent terms have been signed by the Directors of the Petitioner and the Respondent Company as well as their respective advocates.

2 The said consent terms are taken on record and marked “X” for identification. The statements and undertakings contained therein are accepted. The Company Petition is disposed of in terms of the consent terms with liberty to the Petitioner to apply in the event there is any default committed as contemplated in the consent terms. No order as to costs.
