CORAM : K.R.SHRIRAM, J.

DATE : 4TH JANUARY, 2016

P.C.

1 The counsel appearing for the petitioner and the respondent request that a consent order be passed in the petition. Therefore, by consent following order is passed :

(i) The respondent agrees to pay a sum of Rs.29,08,224/- being the principal amount as under :

(i)	Rs.10,00,000/-	On or before 8.02.2016
(ii)	Rs. 10,00,000/-	On or before 8.03.2016
(iii)	Rs. 9,08,224/-	On or before 8.04.2016

(ii) This amount will be paid by pay order of a Bank based in Mumbai drawn in favour of the petitioner and the same will be handed over to the Advocate on record for the petitioner.

(iii) Upon the three installments being paid, both the parties will not have any claim against each other.

2 If the respondent makes any default (with a grace period of three days), the petition will automatically stand revived without further notice and will be deemed to be admitted and advertised in two local newspapers, i.e., Free Press Journal in English and Navshakti in Marathi with the returnable date of six weeks from the date of default.

3 The counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, states that the petitioner will inform the Judicial Magistrate, First Class, Balachaur, Punjab about this order and upon the installments being honoured, they will not press for the Case No.64 of 2012 pending before it.

4 The petition accordingly stands disposed.
