

3 In view of the above, the chamber summons is allowed and disposed of in terms of prayer clauses – (a) and (b).

4 The execution application lodging no.175 of 2013 is restored to file. The undertaking of the advocate for the applicant to have the execution application numbered within two weeks from today is accepted and so ordered. It is made clear that if this direction is not complied with, the execution application shall stand dismissed again without further reference to the court.
