

appeared upon advance notice being served upon them by the petitioners. They are entitled to the award of costs incurred by them. However, since they have not insisted upon such order, we refrain from making such order.”

2. This second petition is filed seeking more or less identical reliefs, which were claimed in the earlier petition. In our view, when the first petition was withdrawn with liberty to approach an appropriate Court, this petition is not be maintainable in this Court. Writ petition is therefore disposed of with a liberty, granted to the Petitioners, to file an appropriate proceeding in an appropriate Court having jurisdiction in the matter.

3. If the claim is not disbursed to the father-in-law of the Petitioners, it may not be disbursed for a period of four weeks, in order to enable them to approach an appropriate Court.
