CORAM: S.C. DHARMADHIKARI &
B.P. COLABAWALLA, JJ.

DATE : OCTOBER 13, 2016

P.C:

1. It is stated that pursuant to the earlier arrangement, the possession of the immoveable property has already been taken and equally compliance is made with law by depositing the amount of compensation in the Competent Court.

2. In the light of these developments, the petitioner's

Advocate concedes that nothing would survive in the writ petition. The order passed on 20-9-2016 is thus complied with. The writ petition accordingly stands disposed of.
