The learned counsel for the petitioners states that the issue involved in this writ petition was also involved in a bunch of writ petitions bearing Writ Petition No.2358/2013 and others, and this Court has, by the judgment dated 21.09.2013, declared that the benefit of Assured Career Progression Scheme (ACPS) should be made available to the Group "C" and Group "D" employees of private aided schools including the Ashram Schools. It is stated that this writ petition could be disposed of with similar directions to the respondents.

The learned Assistant Government Pleader appearing on behalf of the respondents does not dispute the statements made on behalf of the petitioners. It is stated that a similar order could be passed in this case, on parity.

In view of the statements recorded hereinabove and for the reasons recorded in the judgment dated 21.09.2013 in a bunch of writ petitions bearing Writ Petition No.2358/2013 and others, we declare that the petitioners would be entitled to the benefit of Assured Career Progression Scheme (ACPS) and the said benefit may be provided to the petitioners if the other

We direct the respondents to scrutinize the case of the petitioners and consider the petitioners' eligibility for the benefits under the Assured Career Progression Scheme (ACPS), within a period of six months.
