CORAM : SMT. VASANTI A. NAIK &
V.M.DESHPANDE, JJ.

DATE : 06.05.2016.

By this contempt petition, the petitioner seeks action against the respondents for willful disobedience of the order, dated 23/12/2014.

It is stated on behalf of the petitioner that though, by the order of which the contempt is alleged, the Management was directed to send the proposal and the salary bills to the Project Officer so that the Project Officer could disburse the salary in favour of the petitioner, the Management had failed to send the salary bills in respect of the arrears of salary and the Project Officer has also not paid the arrears of salary to the petitioner.

Mrs. Deshpande, the learned Assistant Government Pleader for the respondent No.3, states on instructions that the salary bills of the petitioner for the period from 11/08/2015 were submitted by the Management to the Project Officer and the Project Officer has paid the salary to the petitioner as per the salary bills. It is stated that there is no direction in the order, dated 23/12/2014 to pay the arrears of salary.

On a reading of the order of which the contempt is alleged and the statement made by the learned Assistant Government Pleader, we find that it would not be proper to proceed with the contempt petition any longer. We do not find that by the order, dated 23/12/2014, the Project Officer was directed to pay the arrears of salary to the petitioner. After the petitioner joined the services of the Management, the salary bills of the petitioner were sent by the Management to the Project Officer and the salary is paid to the petitioner, from the date of his joining.

In view of the aforesaid, the contempt petition is disposed of with no order as to costs.
