CORAM : SMT. VASANTI A.NAIK &
 MRS.SWAPNA JOSHI, JJ.

DATED : 20th July, 2016

Heard.

By this Writ Petition, the petitioners have sought a declaration that they are eligible to appear in the DMLT course examination, to be held on 18.5.2016.

Shri Parchure, the learned counsel for respondent nos.1 and 2 states on the basis of affidavit-in-reply filed on behalf of the concerned respondent, that though the petitioners were permitted by an interim order to appear at the DMLT course examination that was scheduled to be held in May /June 2016, none of the petitioners had appeared in the examination, on the ground that all the 64 students that were admitted in the college should have been permitted to appear. It is stated that the cause for filing the Writ petition has been rendered infructuous as the only prayer made by the petitioners was for a direction to the respondents to appear at the examination, that was scheduled on 18.5.2016. It is stated that the examination is already over and hence the cause for filing the Writ Petition has been rendered infructuous.

We find much force in the submission made on behalf of the respondents 1 and 2. Since the examination is already concluded, the Writ Petition cannot be proceeded any longer.

Hence, we dispose of the Writ petition with no order as to costs.
