It is stated on behalf of the petitioners that despite the direction to the respondents to treat the petitioners as qualified teachers from the date of the appointment and pay them the consequential benefits, the petitioners are not paid.

Shri Rode, the learned Assistant Government Pleader, has tendered an affidavit-in-reply on behalf of respondent No.3, in the Court today. The same is accepted on record. It is stated in the affidavit that the entire payment has been made to the petitioners and the delay in making the payment was due to administrative exigency. By accepting the statement made in the affidavit-in-reply, we dispose of the contempt petition with no order as to costs.
