

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
NAGPUR BENCH : NAGPUR

Criminal Application (BA) No. 698 of 2016

Mohd Irshad v. State of Maharashtra

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders of directions
and Registrar's orders

Court's or Judge's orders

Shri S. L. Raut, Advocate for applicant
Shri A. M. Deshpande, APP for respondent-State

Coram : S. B. Shukre, J

Dated : October 18, 2016

Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent-State. Perused the First Information Report and the statements of witnesses

In the dying declaration the victim has stated in so many words the role played by the applicant in setting her on fire. It is further stated by her that her mother and brother who were present in the house, removed her to the hospital by auto-rickshaw. The contention of the learned counsel for the applicant that applicant tried to extinguish fire will not help the applicant to claim release on bail. The material available on record, prima facie implicates the applicant in the crime registered against him. Offence of murder is a serious crime. Applicant is not entitled to be released on bail.

Application is rejected.
