DATED : 31st August, 2016

Shri Parchure, the learned counsel for the petitioner, states that after the school in which the petitioner was working was de-recognized in the year 2013, the petitioner was asked by the Education Officer to join the duties in the respondent no. 4 school. The respondent no. 4 school did not permit the petitioner to join the duties. It is stated that in the said background this writ petition was filed.
