 S. B. SHUKRE, JJ.

DATE : November 18, 2016

Heard Advocate Shri Mir N. Ali for petitioner and Shri M.J. Khan, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor for respondents. Perused reply and certificate dated 15/05/2016 issued by Superintendent, Open Prison at Gadchiroli.

It appears that petitioner has reported on due date after enjoying extended furlough leave. Affidavit in reply shows that he has reported late by one day. On earlier occasions he has reported late, but voluntarily.

In this situation, we find denial of furlough unsustainable. Accordingly, we direct the respondents to obtain necessary undertaking/bond with surety from the petitioner and direct to release him on furlough within three weeks from today.

Criminal writ petition is partly allowed and disposed of.
