DATE : 01.10.2016

It appears from the statement made by the learned Counsel for the applicant/petitioner that all the other monetary benefits are received by the petitioner except leave encashment. If that be so, no ground is made out for granting an out of turn hearing as several petitions, where the petitioners are out of service, are pending for more than 10 years. The prayer made in the civil application stands rejected.

The civil application stands disposed of accordingly.
