Mr. P.S. Patil, counsel for respondent.

CORAM : B.R. GAVAI AND P.N. DESHMUKH, JJ.

DATED : 1st FEBRUARY, 2016

The petitioner has filed this petition contending therein that the respondent University has committed contempt of the order passed by this court in W.P. No. 3061/2014 passed on 24.2.2015.

Vide the said order this court had directed the respondent University to fill in the post from the project affected persons category in view of the judgment of the Full Bench of this Court in the case of Rajendra Pandurang Pangare and another Vs. State of Maharashtra and others, reported in 2009(4) Mh.L.J., 961. It is the contention of the petitioner that in the advertisement there is no reservation provided for projected affected persons.

Shri Patil, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent University, submits that the reservation for projected affected persons would be provided as and when the vacancies are advertised from open category and he submitted that the present posts are to be filled in only from the category of backward classes.

It is not the case of the petitioners that the respondent University is making recruitment contrary to the law laid down by the larger bench of this court in the case of Rajendra Pandurang Pangare (referred supra).

In that view of the matter, we do not find that any case is made out for invoking contempt jurisdiction. The contempt petition is, therefore, without substance and as such is dismissed.
