because of its conclusion that petitioner did not possess locus to approach the Court independent of respondent nos. 3 and 4 in the matter.

4. With his assistance, we have looked into the relevant paragraphs.

5. Paragraph nos. 39 and 40 of the judgment delivered by this Court shows the reasons which weighed this Court. The arguments raised by the learned Senior Counsel then appearing, are also mentioned by us in the said judgment.

6. The reasons for condonation of delay also do not inspire confidence. The same are not supported by proper affidavit.

7. In this situation, we find the effort of review itself erroneous. We are therefore, not inclined to issue notice on the application for condonation of delay. The same is rejected. Consequently, the Misc. Civil Application also stands rejected. No costs.
