By this petition, the petitioner seeks a direction against the respondent – Election Commission to complete the process of registration of the petitioner as a political party, in terms of the application, dated 8.2.2016.

Shri Kasat, the learned Counsel for the respondent – Commission states that the petitioner was informed vide communication dated 8.11.2016 that there was some deficiency in the application made by the petitioner, inasmuch as the petitioner had not tendered the details of the list of 150 members in the electoral roll and had also not supplied a certified copy that the names of the 150 members were included in the electoral roll.
