CORAM : B. P. DHARMADHIKARI AND
P. N. DESHMUKH, JJ.

DATED : 10 MARCH, 2016

Heard for some time.

We do not find any error in the impugned order. However, as that does not stop the petitioner-management from holding another proceeding, we find it appropriate to see that same is conducted in transparent manner.

We direct the petitioner to supply to respondent No.2-employee copy of the pursis along with six annexures therewith during the course of the day.

We grant respondent No.2 leave to file appropriate reply to the Show Cause Notice dated 25/6/2015, afresh. We are not going into the controversy whether the petitioner has refused to receive such reply already tendered by respondent No.2.

Respondent No.2 shall serve copy of the said reply upon the office of respondent No.1 also. Said reply shall be filed within a period of three weeks from today. After receipt of that reply, the petitioner shall give advance notice of further date and stage fixed in the matter to respondent No.2. Respondent No.2 shall be supplied with such notice at least 7 days in advance of the scheduled date and stage thereof.

After giving the respondent No.2 due liberty, the petitioner shall pass fresh orders within further period of three months.

Keeping all rival contentions open, with the above directions, we dispose of the petition. No costs.
