Coram : B.P .Dharmadhikari and V.M.Deshpande, JJ.

Date : 12th JANUARY, 2016

Heard Advocate Khamborkar for the petitioner and Adocate Deogade h/f Mr. S.K. Mishra for the respondent. Perused the sir-rejoinder filed on behalf of Divisional Officer, Nagpur Improvement Trust.

In paragraph 2 in the sir-rejoinder it is expressly mentioned that the N.I.T. is not undertaking any activity on the subject land and it has high degree of respect to the orders passed by this Court. It is also mentioned that the land in question is leased out by the State Government to the society and the lease has expired, but it has not been renewed as yet.

In view of this statement, Shri Khamborkar fairly states that the petitioner does not wish to argue the contempt on merits and the matter can be disposed of. He further points out that the petitioner receives right to deal with the averments and developments pointed out in paragraph 3 of sir-rejoinder in accordance with law.

In this situation, without prejudice to the rights of the petitioner, if any, arising out of averments in paragraph 3 of sir-rejoinder dated 28.8.2015 sworn by Hemant Deorao Morey and filed vide St.No. 9402/15 on record of this contempt petition and in view of the assertions in paragraph 2 thereof, we dispose of this contempt petition.
