For Appellant : No Appearance

For Respondents: No Appearance

COMMON ORDER

These two Appeals have been preferred by the tenant under the first respondent, who is the plaintiff in the suits for eviction and recovery of rent. Having lost the case before both the Courts below and suffering the order of eviction, and recovery of rental arrears the tenant has preferred these Appeals in the year 1992. These Appeals have been posted earlier on several occasions including under the caption for dismissal, there was no representation for the appellant either through counsel or in person, therefore in the previous hearing this Court directed the Registry to print the name of appellant and post the case for hearing. Even today, when the cases were listed showing the name of the appellant, there is no representation.

2. Hence, the Second Appeals are dismissed for non-prosecution. No costs. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
