

CrI.O.P.No.10214 of 2016P.KALAIYARASAN, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b) and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.107 of 2016, on the file of the respondent police, and they seek anticipatory bail.

2. It is the case of the prosecution that on 27.04.2016 at about 08.30 a.m., the de-facto complainant lodged complaint before the respondent-Police stating that on 26.04.2016 at about 10.30 a.m., the petitioners formed themselves a group and they were armed with wooden sticks and trespassed into the house of the de-facto complainant and due to previous enmity, they threatened the de-facto complainant to do away with his life, based on which, a case has been registered by the respondent-Police against the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and that they are innocent of the offences alleged against them and they are having permanent residence and he prayed that the petitioners may be granted anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-Police has not seriously objected for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the nature of offences alleged against the petitioners and that they are having permanent residence and further that except Section 506(ii) IPC, all other offences are bailable and also taking into account the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail, in the event of arrest, or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ponneri, on each of them executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the said learned Judicial Magistrate and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m until further orders. The petitioners shall comply with the conditions stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C. scrupulously.

7. The petitioners shall surrender before the said learned Judicial Magistrate within a period of three weeks from the date on which the order copy is made ready, failing which, the anticipatory bail granted herein shall stand dismissed.
