

CrI.O.P.No.10233 of 2016

P.KALAIYARASAN, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506 (ii) IPC in Crime No.429 of 2016, on the file of the respondent police, and he seeks anticipatory bail.

2. It is the case of the prosecution that on 24.04.2016, at about 04.30 p.m., there was dispute between the neighbours leading to fight between them and the petitioner and others assaulted the de-facto complainant, who lodged a complaint against the petitioner and other accused and the other accused have been arrested.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he is arrayed as A2 and he has no previous case and further that he is innocent of the offences alleged against him and he is having permanent residence and the learned counsel prayed that the petitioner may be granted anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-Police submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also considering the nature of offences alleged against the petitioner and that he is having permanent residence and also taking into account the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
