

Crl.O.P.Nos.10242 and 10243 of 2016

P.KALAIYARASAN, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 326 and 506 (ii) IPC in Crime Nos.106 and 107 of 2016, on the file of the respondent police, and they seek anticipatory bail.

2. It is the case of the prosecution that due to previous enmity owing to property dispute between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant, there was wordy quarrel between them.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in the cases and further that they are innocent of the offences alleged against them and they are having permanent residence and the learned counsel prayed that the petitioners may be granted anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-Police submitted that it is a case and counter and the injured has been discharged from the hospital and he has no serious objection for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, nature of offences alleged against the petitioners, the fact that they are having permanent residence and also taking into account the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
