

Crl.O.P.No.10398 of 2016P.KALAIYARASAN, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 353, 294(b), 427 and 506(i) of I.P.C on the file of the respondent police, in Crime No.357 of 2016 and seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a dispute in a Masjid, the accused have attacked the de-facto complainant with hands and caused injury.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and they have nothing to do with the alleged offences and they are also having permanent residence and therefore, no prejudice would be caused to the prosecution in the event of the petitioners' release on anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor has no serious objection.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegation made against the petitioners and the fact that except Sec.506(i) and 353 IPC, other offences are bailable in nature, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
