For Petitioner : Mr.C.C.Chellappan

For Respondents : Mr.A.N.Thambidurai,
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by M.JAICHANDREN, J.]

The petitioner, who is the father of the detainee, Alima @ Banu @ Shanu, aged 36 years W/o Mohammed Vaseer, has come forward with this petition challenging the detention order passed by the second respondent, dated 22.09.2015, against his daughter branding her as an "Immoral Traffic Offender" under the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug Offenders, Forest Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Slum Grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 [Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982].

2.Though, many grounds have been raised in the petition, Mr..C.C.Chellappan, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, confines his argument only in respect of non-application of mind, on the part of the detaining authority, in passing the order of detention.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that, page Nos.107, 109, 115 & 116 in the booklet, furnished to the detinue, are illegible and could not be read at all. This illegible copies, would deprive the detinue of making effective representation, to the authorities, against the order of detention. Thus, the detention order is vitiated, on these grounds and the same is liable to be quashed.

4.Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that, the order of detention has been passed, on cogent and sufficient materials and the same cannot be interfered with, at the instance of the petitioner. Therefore, he submits that the Habeas Corpus Petition, does not merit any consideration and the same is liable to be dismissed.

5.We have heard the learned counsel for both sides with regard to the facts.

6.A perusal of the booklet supplied to the detinue, would show that the copies of documents referred and relied upon and referred to by the Detaining Authority, in particular, page Nos.107, 109, 115 & 116, are illegible and are totally unreadable. This has resulted in the detinue being deprived of making an effective representation. Therefore, the detention order is vitiated and liable to be quashed on this ground alone.

7.It is a trite law that, personal liberty protected under Article 21, is so sacrosanct and so high in the scale of Constitutional values that, it is the obligation of the detaining authority to show that the impugned detention meticulously accords with the procedure established by law. Preventive detention is preventive and not punitive. When ordinary law of the land is sufficient to deal with, taking recourse to the preventive detention law is illegal.

9.In the light of the above facts and law, we have no hesitation in quashing the order of detention on the above mentioned ground.

10. Accordingly, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the impugned detention order in No.1003/BCDFGISSSV/2015 dated 22.09.2015 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detainee is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence is required in connection with any other case.
