

Crl.O.P.No.11206 of 2016S.VAIDYANATHAN, J.

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 22.04.2016 for alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b) and 307 IPC in Crime No.174 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that in a wordy quarrel, the petitioner hit the defacto complainant and attempted to kill him with the help of a stone.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the marriage between the petitioner and his wife was a love marriage and the parents of the petitioner took his wife to their house and he was not allowed to see his wife and hence, the petitioner lodged a complaint before the Commissioner of Police, Salem and as a counter blast, a false complaint has been lodged against the petitioner and that petitioner has not committed any such offence. He further submitted that the petitioner is in custody for more than 45 days and hence he may be enlarged on bail.

4. In reply, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the petitioner is involved in 14 previous cases, including a case of murder and 5 cases under section 307 IPC.

5. Taking note of the fact that the petitioner is having previous antecedents and that out of 14 previous cases, 11 cases are already reflected in the order of the Sessions Court, dated 11.05.2016, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner and the petition is dismissed.
