

CRL.O.P.No.11386 of 2016S.VAIDYANATHAN, J.

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC in Cr.No.137 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioners have come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the wordy quarrel, the petitioner dispute, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injury.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he has been falsely implicated in this case. For illegal detention and attack causing injury to the petitioners, a case was registered in Cr.No.138 of 2016.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submits that the due to political vengeance, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Mayiladuthurai, on each of them executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a
