

CRL.O.P.No.11747 of 2016

S.VAIDYANATHAN, J.

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of IPC in Crime No.225 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioner has come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The petitioner is the owner of the lorry. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused are alleged to have illegally transported sand in their lorry.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that false case has been lodged against the petitioner and he has not committed any such offence.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the lorry has been seized and there is no previous case as against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the petitioner is not involved in any previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Walajapet, on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
