

CRL.O.P.No.12031 of 2016S.VAIDYANATHAN, J.

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 & 506(i) of IPC in Cr.No.209 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioners have come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have picked up quarrel with the defacto complainant who had stored the building materials in the cart track and in that the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant.

3.Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that they have been falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that since the petitioners are new to Thiruppur, they do not know any person who can stood as sureties and hence, seeks indlulgence of this Court.

4.Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submits that the injured has been treated as out patient.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances and the fact that the injured had been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial
