

CRL.O.P.No.12758 of 2016

S.VAIDYANATHAN,J.

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.186 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioners have come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. Heard the learned counsel on either side.

3. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, by which, the petitioners are alleged to have attacked the defacto complainant, due to which, the defacto complainant was injured.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. It is a case in counter.

5. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

6. In such circumstances, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Arakkonam, on each of them executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further
