

Crl.O.P.No.13025 of 2016

G.CHOCKALINGAM, J.

The petitioners, who are arrayed as accused, apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294[b], 323, 324 and 506[i] of IPC in Crime No.134 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on account of previous enmity, these petitioners assaulted the de facto complainant with hands, due to which, the victim sustained injuries and was hospitalized.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate [Criminal Side] appearing for the respondent submitted that the victim has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case as against these petitioners.

5.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case as against these petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
