

CRL.O.P.No.13450 of 2016

S.VAIDYANATHAN,J.

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147,148,294(b) and 506(ii)IPC r/w 3 (i) of PPD L Act in Crime No.276 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioners have come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that these petitioners is alleged to have attempted to break the glass pan of the car of defacto complainant, resulting in the registration of a case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that previously there was a wordy quarrel between these petitioners and defacto complainant and thereafter it was amicably pacified and settled between them. Subsequent to the incident, this complaint has been lodged with an intention to take revenge on the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that the injured is discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate, Tiruvarur, on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only)
