Writ petitions filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, for issuance of Writ of Mandamus, directing the Ist respondent to issue fresh tender application to the petitioner after issuing fresh notice inviting tenders, enabling the petitioner to participate in the tender proceedings in accordance with law.

For Petitioner : Mr.Thanjai PN Chezhan
For Respondent -1 : Mr.C.Kasirajan
For Respondent-2 : Mr.S.Diwakar
Special Government Pleader

COMMON O R D E R

The petitioners have filed these Writ Petitions seeking for issuance of a writ of mandamus to direct the first respondent to issue fresh tender application, after issuing fresh notice inviting tenders, to enable the petitioners to participate in the tender proceedings.

2. These Writ Petitions were filed in the year 2011, and admittedly, the period of licence, even if granted, will be only for one year, and that period also lapsed. Under these circumstances, no useful purpose would be achieved in keeping these Writ Petitions pending. Accordingly, these Writ Petitions are dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
