

CRL.O.P.No.14517 of 2016

S.VAIDYANATHAN,J.

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b) and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.316 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioners have come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police.

3.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours. There was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant in regard to drawing water from common water tap and in the said melee, the petitioners used unparliamentary language and threatened him with dire consequences, resulting which, he got injury.

4.Learned Counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any such offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

5.Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) on instructions submitted that victim has been discharged from the hospital.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the victim has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
