

CRL.O.P.No.16077 of 2016S.VAIDYANATHAN, J.

Apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 498(A), 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.10 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police, the petitioners have come forward with this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant who is the wife of the first accused, was harassed by her husband and in-laws in respect of dowry demand. Hence, this complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the defacto complainant's husband was arrested.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that defacto complainant's husband was arrested and the petitioners are only in-laws and relative and the case being a family matter, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate, No.1, Tirupur District, on each of them executing a
