ORDER

This Criminal Original Petition was referred to Tamil Nadu Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Madras to explore the possibility of a settlement of the dispute between the parties.

2. A communication dated 27.01.2016 of the Tamil Nadu Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Madras, enclosing a copy of its report dated 11.01.2016 has been received, wherein it is stated as follows:-

"Both the parties appeared before the Centre along with their Counsel. The first petitioner and defacto complainant agreed for compromise. The second petitioner was absent for all the Mediation proceedings. Matter has been settled between them as per the terms cited in the Mediation Agreement enclosed. Hence, the matter is sent back to the Honourable Court."

3. As per the Mediation report dated 27.01.2016, the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and the terms of settlement has been duly recorded in the Memo agreement dated 11.01.2016, which reads as follows:-

"Both sides, out of their own volition and without any pressure or coercion from any side have agreed as follows:-

1. The first petitioner and defacto complainant are willing to live together (re-union) in the residence of the first petitioner and lead their life in prosperous way without any problem.

2. The defacto complainant agrees to withdraw the complaint on the file of the Inspector of Police, All Women Police Station, R.S. Puram West, Coimbatore, Crime Number not known of 2015."

The Mediation agreement has been duly signed by the petitioners, defacto complainant and their respective counsel. Having regard to the fact that the petitioner as well as the defacto complainant have settled the dispute, in terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties, which is recorded under the Mediation Agreement by the Tamil Nadu Mediation and Conciliation Centre, High Court, Madras in its Report dated 11.01.2016, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of. The Mediation Agreement and the report of the Mediation Centre shall form part of this order.
