COMMON ORDER

Even though notice was served on the respondent and the name of the respondent finds a place in the cause title, she has not chosen to enter appearance either in person or through counsel. Hence, this court deems it fit to pass an order on hearing the submissions made on behalf of the petitioner.

2. The present revision petitions have been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India for the limited relief of a direction to

3. In view of the limited scope of prayer and in view of the fact that the respondent has not chosen to enter appearance to resist the petition, especially in the light of the fact that the H.M.O.Ps. are pending for about ten years, this court is of the view that the relief sought for has to be granted.
