ORDER

The plaintiff is the Revision Petitioner. The plaintiff has sought for an amendment of the description of the property before the Appellate Court and the appellate court has chosen to dismiss the same, as against which this Revision Petition has been filed.

2. It is only the respondents / defendants, who could dispute the identity of the property and once the respondents did not raise any objection, disputing the description of the property, the Application for amendment is totally unnecessary.

3. Giving the very same reason, the Court below has chosen to dismiss the Application for amendment of the description of the property. In such circumstances, this Civil Revision Petition has no merits and it is liable to be dismissed.

4. In the result, this Civil Revision Petition is dismissed. No costs. Consequently, the connected CMP is closed.
