Selvi .. Petitioner

vs.

1. The State of Tamil Nadu
Rep.by its Secretary to Government
Home, Prohibition and Excise (XVI) Department
Secretariat, Chennai -600 009

2. The Commissioner
Veppari, Greater Chennai .. Respondents

Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus, to call for the records relating to the detenu's detention order passed by the second respondent in BCDFGISSSV No.1102 of 2015 dated 23.10.2015 and set aside the same and produce the detenu Velmurugan, Male, aged about 23, son of Loganathan, now detained in Central Prison - II, Puzhal, Chennai before this Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mr. Mohammed Aasif

For Respondents : Mr.M.Maharaja
Addl. Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

[Order of the Court was made by G.CHOCKALINGAM, J.]

Challenge is made to the order of detention passed by the second respondent vide Proceedings in BCDFGISSSV No.1102 of 2015 dated 23.10.2015, whereby the detenu, namely Velmurugan@ Eli, S/o Loganathan, aged about 23 years, was ordered to be detained under the provisions of Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Cyber Law Offenders, Drug Offenders, Forest Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Sexual Offenders, Slum-Grabbers and Video Pirates

Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982) branding him as a "GOONDA".

2. Though many grounds have been raised in the petition, Mr.Mohammed Aasif, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, confines his argument only in respect of non-application of mind on the part of the detaining authority in passing the order of detention.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the detenu has been remanded to judicial custody in the adverse cases in Cr.Nos.51/2012 (registered by V5 Thirumangalam Police Station), 822 of 2015 (registered by V3 JJ Nagar Police Station and 1703 of 2015 (registered by S3 Meenambakkam police station and though a mention has been made by the Detaining Authority in respect of the ground case in paragraph 4 of the Grounds of Detention, the factum of the remand of the detenu in the adverse cases in Cr.Nos.51/2012 (registered by V5 Thirumangalam Police Station), 822 of 2015 (registered by V3 JJ Nagar Police Station and 1703 of 2015 (registered by S3 Meenambakkam police station has not been reflected. This is indicative of the non-application of mind on the part of the Detaining Authority and hence, submitted that the detention order is vitiated and the same is liable to be quashed.

4. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the order of detention has been passed on cogent and sufficient materials and the same cannot be interfered with at the instance of the petitioner. Therefore, he submits that the Habeas Corpus Petition does not merit any consideration and the same is liable to be dismissed.

5. We have heard the learned counsel for both sides with regard to the facts and citation.

6. As could be evidenced from the Grounds of Detention, the detenu was arrested in the adverse cases in Cr.Nos.51/2012 (registered by V5 Thirumangalam Police Station), 822 of 2015 (registered by V3 JJ Nagar Police Station and 1703 of 2015 (registered by S3 Meenambakkam police station. But the factum of remand of the detenu in the adverse cases in Cr.Nos.51/2012 (registered by V5 Thirumangalam Police Station), 822 of 2015 (registered by V3 JJ Nagar Police Station and 1703 of 2015 (registered by S3 Meenambakkam police station has not been reflected in paragraph 4 of the Grounds of Detention. When nothing has been stated about the remand of the detenu in the said adverse cases, it is not known whether the detenu has filed any bail application in the said adverse cases or not. If that be so, there is no imminent possibility of the detenu coming out on bail in the said adverse cases. Hence, the Detaining Authority has passed the Detention order in total non-application of mind which would vitiate the detention order.

7. It is trite law that personal liberty protected under Article 21 is so sacrosanct and so high in the scale of Constitutional values that it is the obligation of the detaining authority to show that the impugned detention meticulously accords with the procedure established by law. Preventive detention is preventive and not punitive. When ordinary law of the land is sufficient to deal with, taking recourse to the preventive detention law is illegal.

8. In the light of the above facts and law, we have no hesitation in quashing the order of detention on the above mentioned grounds.

9. Accordingly, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the impugned detention order passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu is directed to be released, forthwith, unless his presence is required in connection with any other case.
