O R D E R

[Order of the Court was made by G.CHOCKALINGAM, J.]

Challenge is made to the order of detention passed by the second respondent vide Proceedings in No.1276/BCDFGISSSV/2015 dated 30.12.2015, whereby the detenu/son of the petitioner, by name, Veeramarudhu @ Dinesh, son of Veerapandian, aged 23 years, was ordered to be detained under the provisions of the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Cyber Law Offenders, Drug Offenders, Forest Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Sexual Offenders, Slum Grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982) branding him as a "Goonda".

2. Though many grounds have been raised in the petition, Mr. Ilayaraja Kandasamy, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, confines his argument only in respect of non-application of mind on the part of the detaining authority in passing the order of detention.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the detenu has been remanded in the adverse cases in Cr.No.2785/2015, 2803/2015 and 2816/2015 registered by J4 Kotturpuram Police Station and in the ground case in Cr.No.2820/2015 registered by J4 Kotturpuram Police Station and the bail applications filed by him for the above said cases in CrI.MP.Nos.3206/2015, 3207/2015, 3205/2015 (Adverse cases) on the file of IX Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Saidapet are pending and the bail application filed by him in respect of the ground case in CrI.MP.No.20689 of 2015 on the file of the Principal Sessions Court, Chennai, is pending. But the Detaining Authority, in the Grounds of Detention, has relied upon a similar case in Cr.No.311/2015 registered by K.2 Ayanavaram Police Station, wherein the accused was granted bail by the Principal Sessions Court, Chennai in CrI.M.P.No.2197/2015. It is submitted that when reliance is placed on a similar case by the Detaining Authority to arrive at the subjective satisfaction, he has to place reliance only on such case, in which bail is granted by a Court similar to that of the Court/Courts where the bail applications of the detenu are pending and not the order of a superior Court. This is indicative of non-application of mind on the part of the Detaining Authority and thus, the detention order is vitiated on the above sole ground and the same is liable to be quashed.

4. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the order of detention has been passed on cogent and sufficient materials and the same cannot be interfered with at the instance of the petitioner. Therefore, he submits that the Habeas Corpus Petition does not merit any consideration and the same is liable to be dismissed.

5. We have heard the learned counsel for both sides with regard to the facts.

6. As evidenced from the Grounds of Detention, in particular, paragraph 4, the Detaining Authority has arrived at the subjective satisfaction that the detenu would be granted bail in the adverse cases [Cr.No.2785/2015, 2803/2015 and 2816/2015], in which case bail applications were pending before the learned IX Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Saidapet, Chennai in CrI.MP.Nos.3206/2015, 3207/2015 and 3205/2015 respectively, by placing reliance on a similar case wherein, bail was granted to an accused in a case in Cr.No.311/2015 registered by K-2 Ayanavaram Police Station by the Principal Sessions Court, Chennai in CrI.Mp.No.2197/2015. Whenever a bail application in connection with any adverse case or ground case is pending before a lower Court and if the Detaining Authority arrives at the subjective satisfaction that the detenu would be granted bail in the said cases, he has to place reliance only on such case, in which bail is granted by a Court similar to that of the Court/Courts where the bail applications of the detenu are pending and not the order of a superior Court, as has been done in the instant case. This is indicative of total non-application of mind on the part of the Detaining Authority. Therefore, the detention order is vitiated and liable to be quashed on this ground alone.

7.It is trite law that personal liberty protected under Article 21 is so sacrosanct and so high in the scale of Constitutional values that it is the obligation of the detaining authority to show that the impugned detention meticulously accords with the procedure established by law. Preventive detention is preventive and not punitive. When ordinary law of the land is sufficient to deal with, taking recourse to the preventive detention law is illegal.

8.In the light of the above facts and law, we have no hesitation in quashing the order of detention on the above mentioned ground.

9. Accordingly, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the impugned detention order passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence is required in connection with any other case.
