Challenging the disciplinary proceedings, the petitioner is before this Court.

2. Today, when the writ petition is taken up for hearing, the learned Special Government Pleader would submit that pending the writ petition, the disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner, after enquiry, was concluded and consequently, all the retirement benefits have also been settled in favour of the petitioner, which includes the adjustment of the housing loan arrears. He would further submit that as on date there is no amount pending towards the housing loan.

3. Under such circumstances, it would be appropriate to direct the respondent to release the Housing loan documents which have been retained by them, in view of the fact that the said loan has been settled. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to make a representation seeking for return of the housing loan documents within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On receipt of such representation, the respondent shall consider the same and release the housing documents within a period of two weeks thereafter. The petitioner is also at liberty to claim interest for the belated period of DCRG, if he is so advised.

With the above direction, this writ petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
