The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that even though the petitioner has submitted the representation in the year 2015, the respondents have not considered the same for appointing the petitioner on compassionate grounds and he would be satisfied if this Court directs the respondents to consider the representation of the petitioner and pass appropriate orders as expeditiously as possible.

4. The learned Government Pleader appearing for the respondents has got no serious objection for directing the respondents to consider the representation of the petitioner and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law.

5. Considering the submissions made on either side, this Court, without going into the merits of the claim made by the petitioner, directs the respondents, to consider the representation of the petitioner dated 12.10.2015 and pass appropriate orders, on merits and in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible.
