

CrI.O.P.No.3526 of 2016K.KALYANASUNDARAM,J.

The petitioners, who are arrayed as accused A1 to A5, apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 448, 294(b), 323, 324, & 506(i) IPC, in Crime No.95 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners have abused in filthy language and assaulted with dire consequences.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and they have no previous case.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
