

Crl.O.P.No.3957 of 2016

K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294[b], 324 and 506[ii] of IPC in Crime No.55 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the de facto complainant, in which, the petitioners along with other accused attacked the de facto complainant by hands and caused injuries.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.Learned Government Advocate [Criminal side] appearing for the respondent submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is a case in counter.

5.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
