

Crl.O.P.No.4939 of 2016K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.

The petitioner, who is arrayed as accused, apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC in Crime No.5 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that by producing fake appointment order as if it was issued by the Teachers Recruitment Board, the petitioner joined as P.G. Assistant in the month of December and she has also received salary and on subsequent verification, such appointment order was found to be bogus one.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. Further, he would submit that the petitioner has believed that the order of appointment is genuine and she joined duty. Further, he would submit that after registration of the case, the petitioner was suspended from service.

4.The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the investigation is pending.

5.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
