

Crl.O.P.No.5169 of 2016K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.

The petitioner, who is arrayed as A-1, was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 27.02.2016 for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 406, 420 r/w 34 of IPC in Crime No.31 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant had paid Rs.25,00,000/- to the first accused company for taking training as co-pilot and thereafter, he was assured employment in the same company. However, the accused did not keep up their words and thereby cheated the de facto complainant.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely roped as an accused in this case. It is further submitted that as per the assurance, the son of the de facto complainant was sent for training at Gurgaon and the first accused company has paid Rs.18,00,000/- to meet out the expenses. It is also submitted that the first accused application is pending with DGCA and after obtaining Air operation licence only the de facto complainant's son could be employed in the company. It is submitted that without prejudice to the right of the accused in the criminal case, the first accused is ready to repay Rs.25,00,000/- to the de facto complainant.

4.Learned Government Advocate [Criminal Side] appearing for the respondent would submit that both the accused by giving false representation to the de facto complainant, received Rs.25,00,000/- and thereby cheated him.
