

Crl.O.P.No.5239 of 2016K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.

The petitioner, who is arrayed as A2, apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Section 171,420 and 255 of IPC, in Crime No.80 of 2016 on the file of the respondent police and hence, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first accused had applied for issuance of encumbrance certificate with the Sub-Registrar Office, Thiruporur, enclosing the previous encumbrance certificates. The second accused had gone to the office of the defacto complainant to collect fresh encumbrance certificate and at that time, defacto complainant, Sub-Registrar found that the first accused, while applying the encumbrance certificate, has enclosed fake encumbrance certificate.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case and as per instructions of the first accused, he had gone to the office of the defacto complainant to collect the encumbrance certificate and he was not aware of the allegation made against the first accused.

4. The learned Government Advocate [Criminal side] would submit that prime accused A1 was arrested and remanded to Judicial custody. He further submitted that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.
